Lets slime our way into a fun filled day because its slime day!
Lets hope you have the slime of your life. We will be making lots of slime of different colours and glitters. So dress in some old clothes because slime flies when you're having fun.

Today we are lucky enough to have a real Magician attend our service, we hope I will do the trick! Tom Foolery & his silly suitcase cant wait to show you all their magic. Did you hear about the magician that said he was going to pull a rabbit from his hat? That this trick would be a hare-raising experience.

Today we are off to the city to explore the Australian museum! We will be submerging our self in the world of sharks. We will be going back in time to meet sharks' ancient ancestors, come face-to-face with an 8m-long whale shark, and uncover their extraordinary adaptations with interactive displays, touchable specimens and objects from the collections.
